This modern home is set back away from the main road and has double glazing on the front facing windows to ensure comfort all year round. As you enter the home you are greeted with neutral tones and quality features which creates the beautiful sense of space and luxury.

Through to the living area you will find an open plan space and modern kitchen fitted with quality appliances including dishwasher. The large living area has glass doors that overlook the low maintenance garden.

The home has three great sized bedrooms with the master suite coming complete with its own private ensuite
