Positioned on a generous 926sqm parcel of land, this large family residence presents 293sqm of internal living. With a commanding presence and sensibly built to make use of the natural curves of the land, providing panoramic views from Hallett Cove to the Fleurieu Peninsula, with views of the ocean in between.

Generously proportioned throughout with an abundance of storage, you will find your entrance to the home on the first level through either the undercover porch, handy for those rainy winter days or the double garage with internal access and auto roller doors. Upon entry you are greeted by the large formal lounge, an ideal place to steal away to,
