Positioned on a maintainable courtyard size block on a popular tree lined street in Sheidow Park, this family home presents a generous 200 square metres of internal and external living over two levels. Offering an abundance of high-end features and added extras, this four bedroom home is perfect for the large family who want low maintenance luxury living.

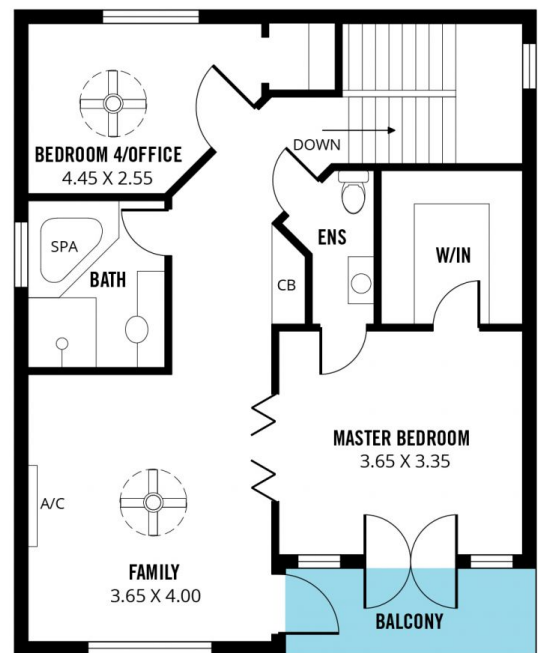

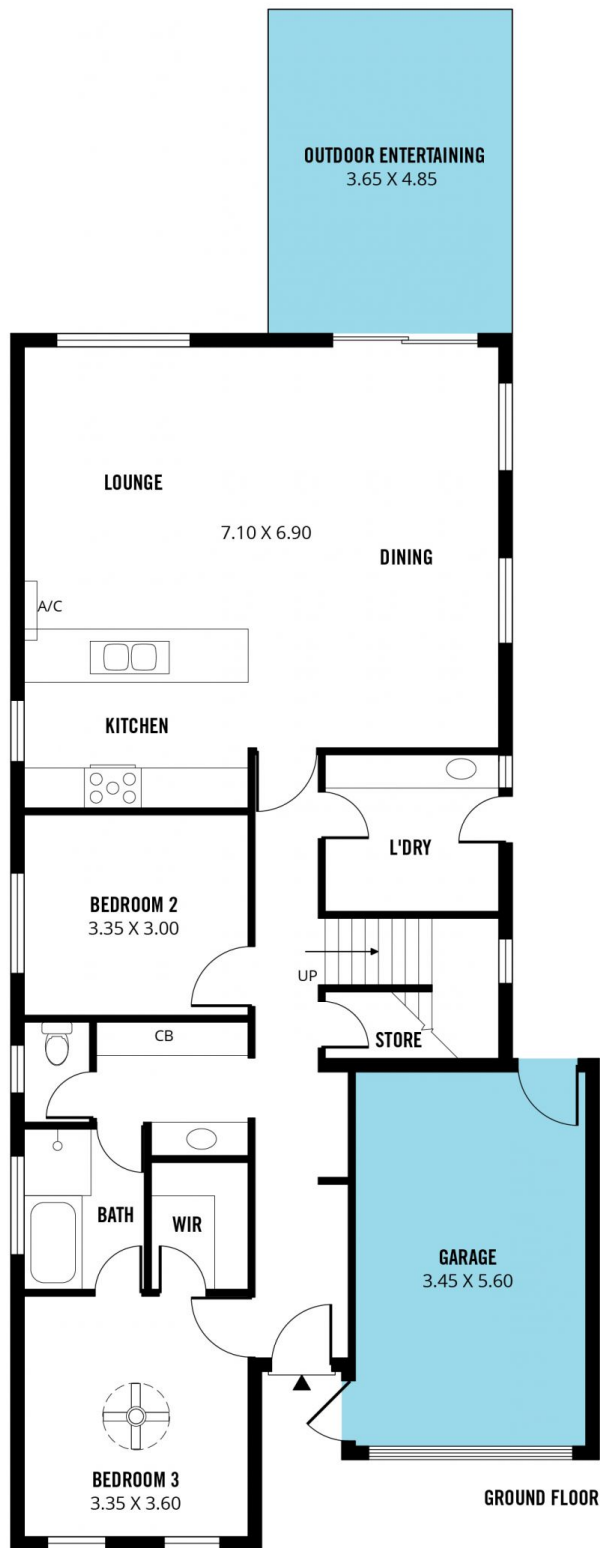

Upon entry you are greeted by a lovely wide hallway, bedroom two to the left with walk in robe and direct access to the two-way main bathroom, with separate toilet and vanity making it perfect for guests while also feeling like your own private en-suite.
