Type : House

With the traditional charms you're looking for such as a large allotment, spacious bedrooms and high ceilings, you'll need to be among the first to view this home. Located in the highly sort after leafy suburb of Happy Valley, this immaculately presented and maintained home will appeal to first home buyers, downsizers and investors.

The functional split level floor plan and raked ceilings give an airy, bright feel to the home. Upon entering the house, you'll view over the sunken lounge and dining, which flows through to the open kitchen. Each bedroom offers built in robes and the large bathroom and separate laundry offer space for plenty of storage.
