This magnificent Spanish style residence is set on approximately 5.26 hectares and has views to die for! On the market for the first time and offering a lifestyle that cannot be matched, it's easy to see how this property is truly a forever home that family generations will enjoy for decades to come.

As you enter through the gates the property greets you with a tree lined driveway overlooking the olive grove, gently leading up to large flat open spaces and the beautiful family home that awaits. Inside the house offers four spacious bedrooms (or three bedrooms and a study), multiple dining or living options, a huge formal living room with feature fireplace, all fitted out with quality fittings, fixtures, and decor reflective of the era and style it was built. Almost every room has a view and was carefully designed to
