Tired of living in the suburbs and looking for a lifestyle change without the sacrifice of moving too far from friends and family? This pristine acreage could be for you, situated in the sought after Cherry Gardens with spectacular views over the southern hills and valleys.

Upon entry you'll find a secluded home surrounded by lush green gardens for the ultimate in privacy and tranquility. Built in 1993 by Ian Wood homes, the home consists of four generous bedrooms (one currently used as a study), the master suite having two way bathroom, walk in robe, and built in vanity. Located at the other end of the home are bedrooms two and three both featuring built in robes and fantastic views. Designed with entertaining in mind from the sunken lounge and formal dining, opening to the
