Driving into Odessa Drive, you'll admire the wide street and open spaces as you're greeted by reserves and houseproud homes conveniently located within walking distance of local shops, transport and schools.

The wide frontage of this beautiful family home caters for 5 off street car parks including a carport with electric roller door allowing drive through access to the rear of the property. The front of the home has been landscaped with a welcoming yet low maintenance garden.

As you enter the home, the first of two large living areas welcomes you with natural light, new carpets and split
