Situated in the popular Glenloth Estate is this charming 2000 built villa home.

The home itself offers three bedrooms, the main being very generous in size with walk in robe and access to the two way bathroom. Both other bedrooms are also well sized and have built in robes. The house features ducted evaporative cooling throughout along with a gas space heater for those cooler winter months. You'll find a large open living area with a very tasteful colour scheme and modern fittings and fixtures throughout. Topped off with floating timber floorboards this house will easily become a home.

There is ample car parking with a single garage with remote automatic roller door and driveway space. The lovely courtyard block offers a leafy setting while still being
