This well located 1910 built stone fronted villa offers so much character and charm. Boasting grand high ceilings, ornate corning, large rooms, a versatile floor plan. The home will respond well to some renovations and updates but offers plenty of potential.

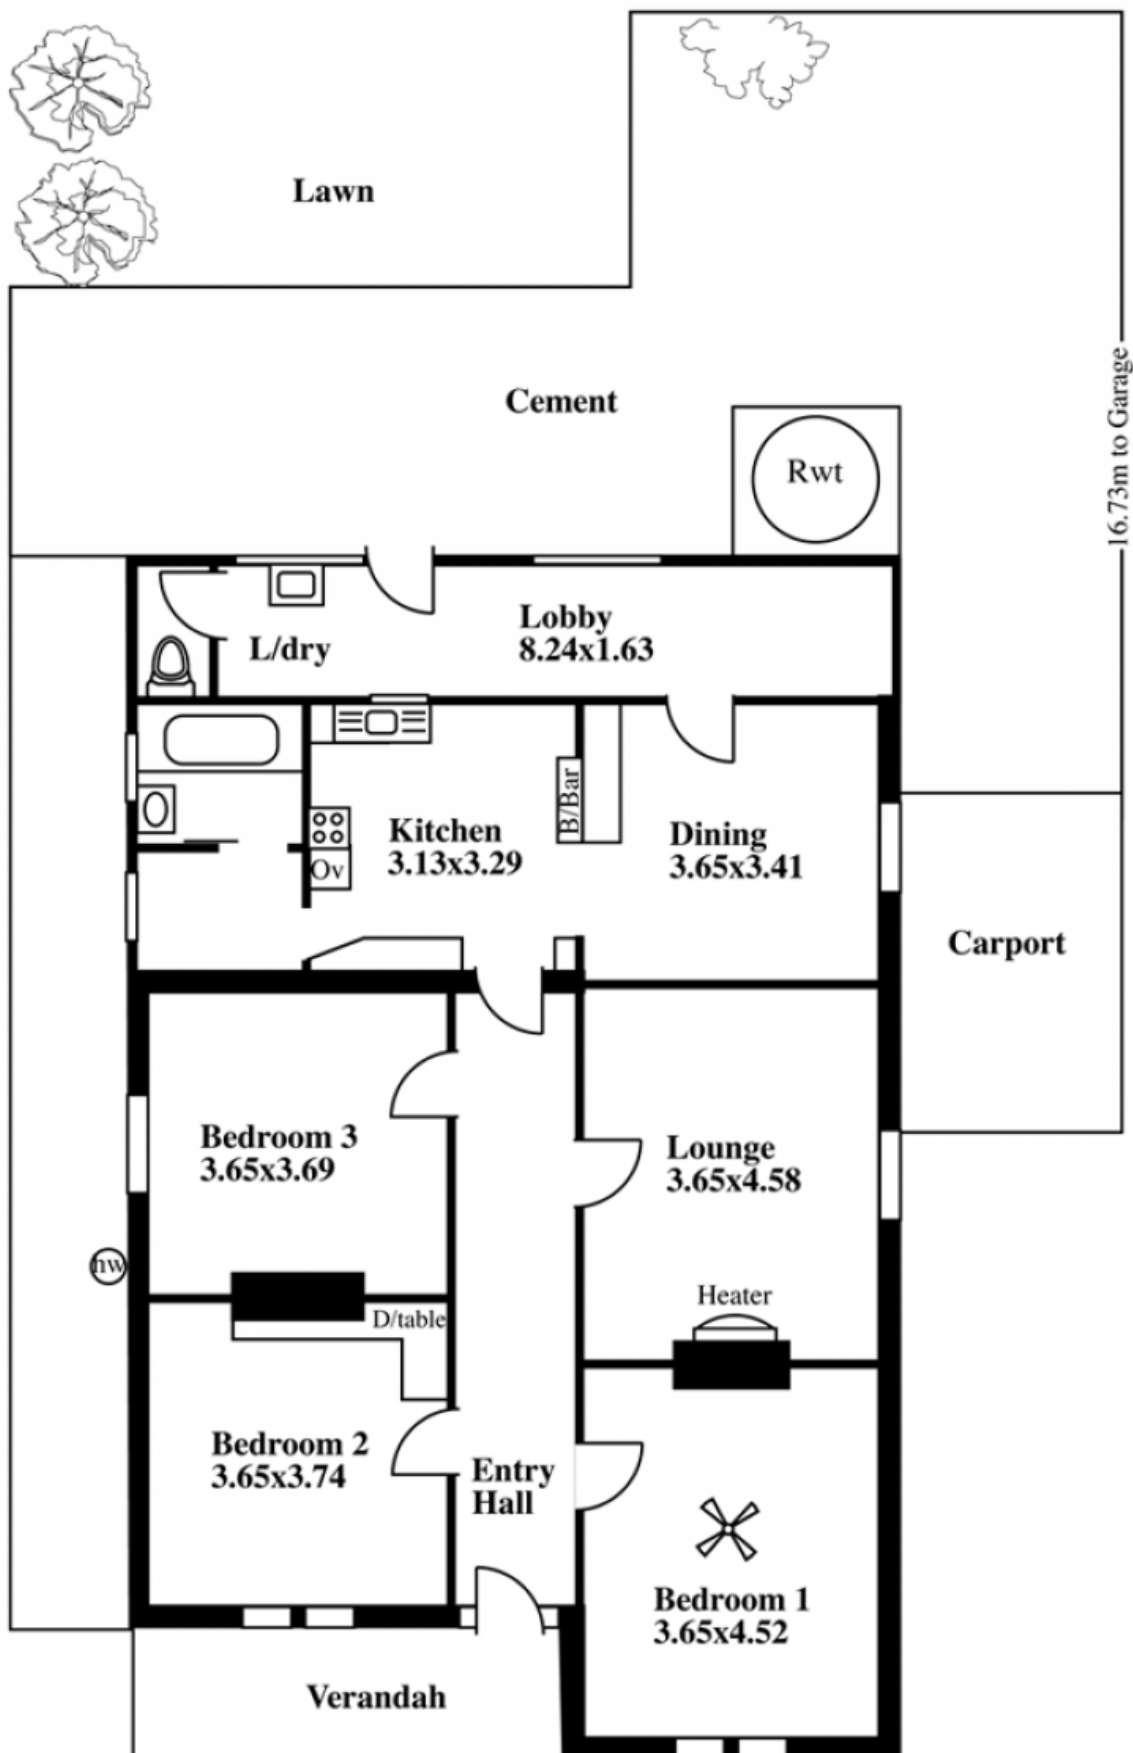

Outside you'll find drive through access to the rear yard and shed, the landscaping is immaculate with mature fruit trees and plenty of room for the kids and pets.

The allotment has potential for a hammerhead subdivision, enquiries should be made to the West Torrens City Council. (stcc)
