Located in a great position is this updated home unit tucked away at the back of the group. The property boasts two bedrooms (the master with built in robe), stunning new bathroom, large living area, spacious kitchen, separate laundry, heating and cooling, all in a very practical layout.

Outside you'll be impressed with the secure rear yard which is large enough to entertain yet still very low maintenance and the single carport (the group has extra guest parking). The whole property is very well established with mature trees, this one is sure to impress!
