This well looked after two bedroom home is perfect for the new first home buyer with a budget entering the market or the savvy investor looking for their next property. The property has two bedrooms, both with built in robes and are of a good size.

As you walking in to the unit you will find that it is rather spacious and homely. It has a generous size lounge and meals area which flows into the kitchen. With timber floor boards throughout, you will feel quite at home. There is a tool shed and a nice private yard out the back which has been completely updated and looks fantastic.
