This home is perfect for the savvy investor or that new family wanting to enter the market. As you enter this home you will notice how much hard work has gone into making it something special where you can feel right at home. The floor boards throughout have recently been restored giving it that cosy, homely feel.

There are three good size bedrooms with new carpet and two of the bedrooms featuring built-in robes, so there is plenty of storage space. The kitchen has also been updated and looks fantastic. It is of a good size and can handle the needs of that busy modern day family. The
