The renovations completed on this home have given it a modern feel that is definitely unexpected. As you enter the home you will feel excited by the burst of colour in the first lounge room. You will then walk through to the exquisitely renovated kitchen offering new stainless steel appliances.

The journey does not end here. The kitchen servery overlooks the large family room that opens out onto the decking overlooking the garden. At the far end of the home there is another undercover paved veranda that also offers amazing entertaining!

As well as the kitchen, the bathroom has been beautifully
