Contact Stuart Costello for viewing times.

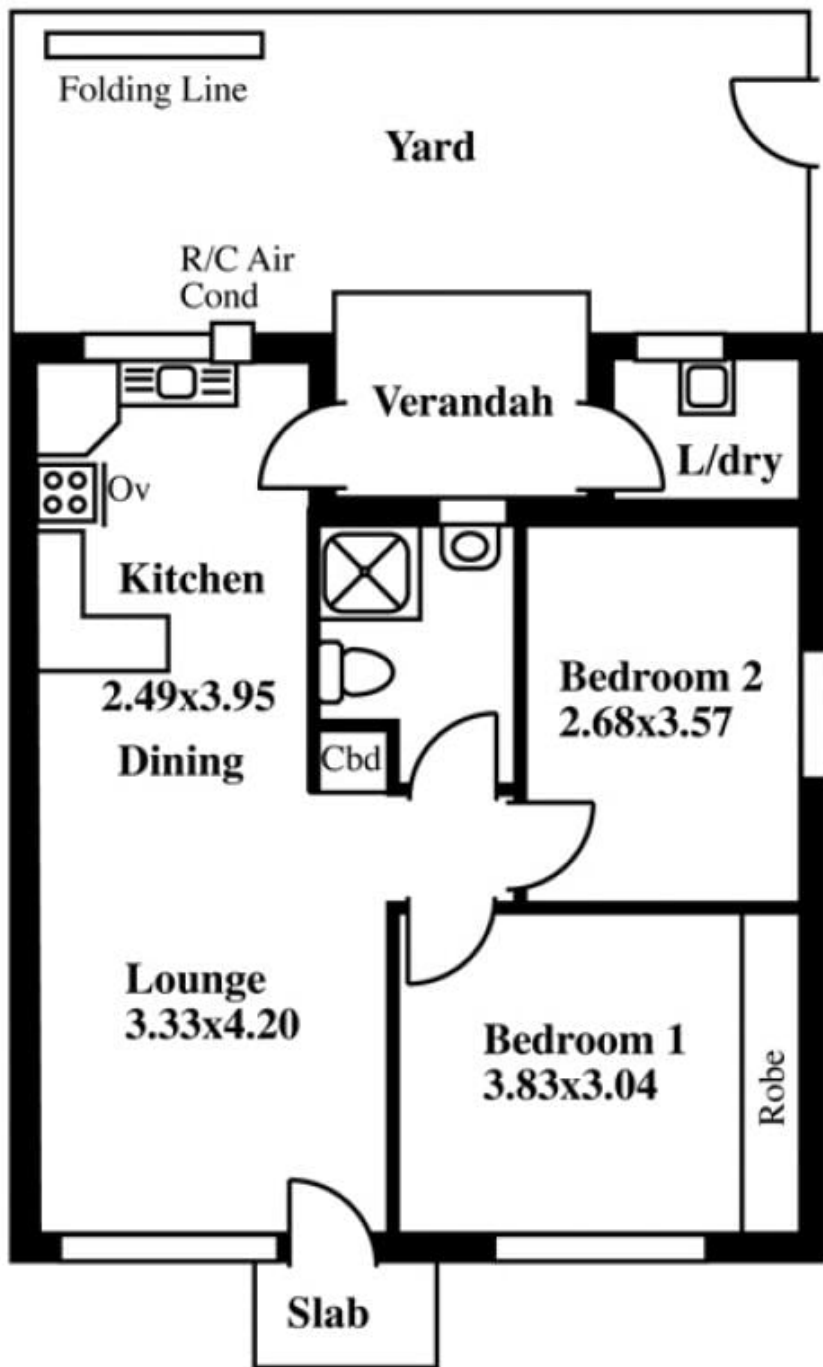

Situated in a convenient location only moments to public transport, shops, and schools this brilliant home unit is only in a group of two and is sure to impress!

As the property is self managed there are no strata management fees to worry about, the home itself comprises two spacious bedrooms, the master with beautiful built in robes, an open living area with original yet well cared for kitchen, light filled bathroom, and topped off with heating and cooling and separate laundry.

Outside you'll be impressed with the easy access parking space and the low maintenance private courtyard.
