This brilliant quality home has everything for the first home buyer right through to family living. The privately tucked away front yard leads you to an immaculately presented spacious town house. Inside you are greeted with a modern and updated kitchen with Jarrah bench tops and a neutral living area. There are three good size bedrooms, the master with a built in robe, and a spacious bathroom, with a new shower screen. The property boasts new floors, new light fittings, new doors and a new hot water system. It also has ducted evaporative cooling. Outside there is a large landscaped yard and single car port. Conveniently located to all facilities and public transport this one is not to be missed.
