Contact Stuart Costello for viewing times.

This fabulous family home, built in 1974 has everything you could possibly dream of, in it's own tropical paradise.

The front of the house greets you with a spacious lounge leading to a separate dining room and new well equipped kitchen. this takes you through to another large family room and study where you can keep an eye on the children.

To the left side of the property is the master bedroom with fantastic en-suite and walk in robe. There are two further generous bedrooms and an up to date family bathroom.

Outside greets you with a superb outdoor entertaining area and sparkling pool to relax and take away the stress of the day. There is also a double garage and bonus secure gated area suitable for boats or caravans, with store and laundry at the rear.
