This lovely well loved home is situated in a central location and has great street appeal with a beautiful front garden.

Inside the neutrally decorated property there are three spacious bedrooms with built in robes, well looked after bathroom, spacious kitchen with plenty of cupboard space and overlooking the meals area. The family lounge has a gas fire and reverse cycle air conditioner and leads out to the patio overlooking the beautifully kept rear garden with plenty of space for all.

Outside there is double length carport with drive through access to the large shed. With the added bonus of solar and the great location this one has plenty going for it.

Whether you're looking to renovate the existing home or look at developing the potential land this one presents
