Here is your rare opportunity to own this much loved family home, well equipped with excellent features and lots of space.

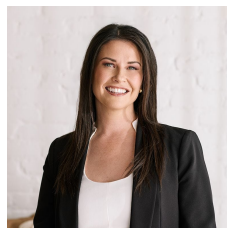

Offering four sizeable bedrooms two of which offer built in robes. A large living area with an outlook across the river and an open plan kitchen and dining area create a great space to bring the family together.

Outside just gets better, a sizeable allotment with a great flat yard which steps down to the Onkaparinga river making it your very own river access, what a tranquil place for you to unwind.

Extra features of this magnificent home include: lovely views of the market square and surrounding hills, split system heating and cooling, solar hot water service,
