Please contact Karen Heuer for further details.

This much loved property has been home to the same family since 1945 and although they have enjoyed many happy years in the home, the time has come for them to move on.

This beautiful home is situated on a generous allotment of approximate 850 sqm block and although the home is perfect for now, it has unlimited potential to extend and put your mark on it in the future. This home is sure to impress from kerbside appeal with neatly presented easy-care gardens to the front and rear.

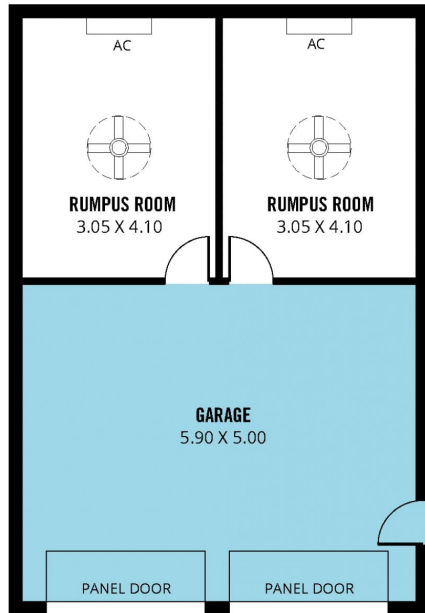

Step into the wide entrance foyer with original lofty ornate ceilings with exceptional detail that immediately grabs your attention, original timber looking flooring, which gives the home that much desired character feel.
