Please contact Danielle Comer or Rachael Farror for viewing times.

Gorgeous curb-side appeal and perfectly positioned in the highly sought after Flagstaff Pines, this beautifully presented four bedroom home with a spacious 286sqm of internal living has been cleverly built into the natural curves of the land, representing an outstanding opportunity for the large family, while being surrounded by popular local schools, shops and public transport options.

Constructed in 2007, the home's modern design offers three separate living spaces, high vaulted ceilings, large glossy tiles and a neutral palette throughout, perfect for the growing family that want nothing to do but move straight in.
