A sophisticated design throughout, this character filled light and airy unit laden with solid timber floors and featuring high ceilings and a neutral palette is located in a Strata block and makes great use of the space provided. With open plan living, two bedrooms and a great sized light filled yard, this special unit truly represents an outstanding home or investment in an unbeatable location close to everything.

You are greeted by a secure and private fence that opens up into a beautifully landscaped garden with decking at the entrance to the unit, making it the perfect spot to enjoy your morning coffee. A spacious formal lounge and dining
