Please contact Danielle Comer or Rachael Farror for viewing times.

Surrounded by quality homes in the popular suburb of Sheidow Park, this spacious home with great kerb-side appeal is perfect for the first home buyer, growing family or the savvy investor looking for that stand out property.

Upon entry you are greeted by a neat entrance that blends seamlessly in a spacious dining and kitchen area that smoothly transitions into the beautifully presented family living. The combination of timber-like flooring, a neutral palette and large picture windows letting in an abundance of natural light from every angle, gives the instant feeling of luxury and that sought after open plan living.
