An opportunity to purchase in the tightly held suburb of Seaview Downs with potential for million dollar views.

The home built in 1972 on 661m of land with a 42m frontage this neatly maintained, two-bedroom brick home is ideal for first homebuyers with future potential or an exciting opportunity to build up and capture a view from the CBD around to Port Adelaide and back along the coast to Seacliff.

The heart of the home, is a 70s blackwood timber kitchen and built in furniture. This was the best of built in furniture
