This private 2013-built homette is nestled in a small, secure community titled estate. Set behind automatic double gates, it offers many additional benefits that will appeal to a range of buyers including first home buyers, downsizers and investors.

The home is very private, nestled at the rear of the group. The spacious double garage includes internal access to the home, with a separate main entrance leading down the hall.

Modern and classy, the dining and living area is overlooked
