4 Church Street WILLUNGA SA

4 1 2

This property offers a versatile floor plan, it's set on a generous allotment and is situated only a short stroll away from the beautiful township of Willunga. A fantastic opportunity to secure your very own piece of this much sought after suburb, and could be suited to a range of different buyers including 1st time buyers, investors, young families or those looking to downsize.

This property has an impressive rendered facade and sits proudly on the high side of the Street. The house sits up above the double garage that is accessed via dual roller doors, that gives some additional elevation and some views from the front terrace/balcony.

As you enter this property the entrance flows into to the
