Immaculately presented and impressively maintained both inside and out, located just 1km from the Kangarilla post office and primary School, set on approximately 30 private acres and could be suited to a range of buyers.

As you meander your way up the private driveway to make your way up to the beautiful home, you can tell that this property has been loved by the current owners and that there is plenty to take in. There is a large implement shed with a concrete floor about halfway up the drive and adjacent sits what was an old dairy that has been semi converted into a powered workshop and has huge potential for further renovations to create a granny flat/retreat as it has a separate bedroom, kitchenette, open living area with a fire place and a separate bathroom. It all needs a bit of
