Sitting proudly overlooking Myponga Beach and boasting arguably the best views in the Fleurieu, this fantastic lifestyle property needs to be seen in person to be truly appreciated.

Located just over an hours drive to Adelaide's CBD this property is the ideal place to get away from the hustle and bustle of suburbia and enjoy the fresh air and the lifestyle that comes with such a property. The home was designed and built in 1996 and has been much loved and extremely well maintained by the current owners. The home offers 334sqm of internal living, making this the ideal property for a growing family or the perfect place to invite friends and/or family to come over, with enough room for them to stay for the weekend if they want.
