38 Alexander Street SELLICKS BEACH SA

3 1 1

Positioned only a few hundred meters from the impressive Sellicks Beach cliff tops, this ultra cute 1960's contemporary style home has loads of appeal.

It's not only the quiet location, or the easy access to one of the States best beaches that make this property appealing, it's the actual dwelling that makes this property something special. The characteristics of this style of home make this property look great from the street, and when you step up to the entrance and walk inside, that's when you can feel that this property is worth some serious consideration. Offering high ceilings and an open plan aspect of the main living area, with a galley style kitchen that overlooks the lounge and a generous dining/meals area that via sliding doors opens out onto a large rear decking area. There are
