3 Turquoise Court ALDINGA BEACH SA

3 2 3

Boasting a commanding street appeal, this property is located on a corner allotment that has been fully fenced to maximise the usability of the entire block and for added privacy. There is a double driveway that leads to a large garage under the main roof that is accessed via dual roller doors. There is extra off street parking available behind double gates that can access a workshop area adjacent the garage and is accessed via an additional roller door. There is also the added benefit of potential side access if required for even more off street parking or storage for a caravan or a boat if required.

As soon as you walk through the front gate, you can immediately appreciate that this property has been loved and very well looked after by the current owners. The
