5 2 2

Under contract in one week by Cameron Bowes

If it's a spacious, stylish, quality family home you're after, then look no further than this beauty on Tidal Street. Positioned at the end of a quiet, no through road and only a short walk to local reserves, restaurants, health facilities and the shopping centre, this home is one you must see for yourself to appreciate.

Built in 2010 and offering a home size of over 250sqm, there is room for everyone here. The home boasts timber flooring and high ceilings throughout. The master bedroom is a great size and is made complete with a large walk through wardrobe and large, modern, double vanity en-suite bathroom. Across the hall is the formal living and
