62 Turners Gully Road CLARENDON SA

3  1  2

Boasting all the character and charm you'd expect from a Circa 1880 Bungalow, combined with the amazing lifestyle that comes with a small secluded acreage makes this property worth some serious consideration.

Sitting proudly overlooking just over an acre of land, a combination of lovely mature trees and gardens, with an amazing outlook across the valley makes this home really special. The front of the home has the idyllic Bungalow verandah that overlooks part of the garden. The entrance hall gives access to the 2 front bedrooms that are both generous in size and offer lofty high ceilings. The main living area has an open plan aspect that includes a lounge and dining area that is overlooked by a timber kitchen. There is a separate room off the kitchen that can be utilised
