Please contact Jemma Turner for more information, or to view the property.

Nestled peacefully and privately behind your own little pine forrest, set well back from the road, sits this gorgeous 4 bedroom, 1985 built home on roughly 5 acres. Arriving at the start of the driveway, you'll love that the home is out of site from the road and offers breathtaking, uninterrupted views.

Inside, the sizeable lounge room (with combustion heater!), filled with natural light, takes full advantage of the stunning views out through its two large windows. The beautifully updated kitchen isn't short of bench and cupboard space, and is made complete with stainless steel appliances.
