From the moment you walk through the front gate you immediately feel something special. Hidden behind the established privacy hedge at the front of the property is a wonderful front garden that boasts beautiful flowers, raised veggie patches and cute garden paths that lead to the front verandah.

The inside of the home also has a special feel to it, with its solid brick walls, high ceilings and timber floors complimented by modern and classy improvements makes this property worth some serious consideration. The entrance leads through to the formal lounge room that comes complete with a ceiling fan, a split system air conditioner and a slow combustion heater. The dining/meals area sits adjacent to the lounge room and
