419 Main Road COROMANDEL VALLEY SA

4  2  2

This extremely rare and unique property is set on over half an acre of land with a Circa 1900 freestone villa that is positioned well back from the road, is extremely private and is deceptively spacious and offers the character and charm you'd expect from a bygone era.

As you arrive at the property, or do a drive past, the impressive mature trees and front garden create a screen or buffer from the road that makes this property private and intriguing. As you make your way up the drive, or walk up to the house, it's at this moment you realize that this property is something special. The impressive sandstone facade and large return verandah really do catch the eye, and gives you a sense of anticipation of what's to come.
