2 Ferry Street SEAFORD SA

3  1  2

Located on a 602m2 corner allotment, within a short stroll to the coast, adjacent to a large reserve and within easy access to a number of schools, shops and transport options makes this property worth some consideration for a number of different buyers including those looking for their 1st home, downsizes, retirees, young families and investors as this property is currently Tenanted.

The location is ideal, close to everything but tucked away enough to be private and secure. The home was built in the late 70's and is a solid double brick construction. The large separate entrance leads through to a spacious lounge room that can be closed off from the rest of the home if needed. The central kitchen has been updated includes a dining/meals area and offers sliding door access out to the
