7 Tangier Boulevard SELICKS BEACH SA

3  2  1

This seaside cutie could be suitable for a wide range of buyers including those searching for a 1st home, young families, investors looking to start or add to their portfolio or those looking to downsize. This property has a nice feel about it, and an inspection comes highly recommended.

There is a fence out the front of the property that gives privacy to the front garden. There is a large elevated deck that stretches across the front of the home and overlooks the front yard. This decking area is the ideal space to sit back and relax or to entertain with friends and family when they come to visit.

As you move inside the home you're greeted with a very spacious open plan aspect to the home. The living area is
