34A Bathurst Avenue MOANA SA

3 3 2

Nestled only one street back from the cliff tops and a beautiful private beach, this modern and very appealing home is worth serious consideration.

Architecturally designed and built in 2010, this home oozes class and has been extremely well fitted out with high quality fixtures, fittings and decor throughout the entire property.

Features of the home include a large entry hall that flows through to the very well-appointed gas kitchen that comes complete with granite bench tops and quality stainless steel appliances. The kitchen is centrally located and overlooks the dining and adjacent downstairs living room that is fitted with air conditioning. Both flow directly out to the side
