13 Kangarilla Road MCLAREN VALE SA

4 2 4

It's very rare for a property with such character, charm and appeal to become available in McLaren Vale, so if you have been searching for something special, this amazing property is worth some serious consideration.

This Circa 1935 Tudor Bungalow is set on over 1,000m² of land and has been extensively updated and extremely well maintained by the current owners. It offers a perfect mix of quality renovations with all the charm and character that make properties of this era so appealing. The white picket fence and the iconic facade give this property an amazing street appeal. There is a long drive way that leads to a single carport and offers drive thru access to the rear yard that leads to a garage at the rear. There is a second double driveway on the other side that leads to a large double
