One of the very last original return soldiers settlement properties boasts approximately 100 acres of arable land, offering a rare combination of well fenced paddocks, beautiful lawned areas, a section of natural scrub land, a very well established and maintained vineyard, great shedding, plenty of water availability and so much more.

The Circa 1933 Bungalow boasts an impressive stone facade and front verandah sits proudly and privately overlooking the entire property.

The large entry hall gives access to the master bedroom that boasts a fire place and characteristic ornate ceilings with Fitted ceiling fan, there are also dual built-in robes and
