Rarely does an opportunity come along such as this; to secure one of the most impressive homes nestled in this much sought after and highly regarded location.

This fantastic property is positioned in a private and very quiet pocket of Willunga. Only a short stroll away from all that is on offer in the historic township, including the ever popular local farmers market, a number of cafes and restaurants, local schools, shops and sporting facilities. The spacious home sits proudly on a large 1,014m2 corner allotment and boasts well-established and maintained gardens both front and back. The home was built in 2006 and has great street appeal.

The impressive entry hall gives access to the formal
