sitting proudly on the high side of a quiet street, surrounded by other quality homes, this immaculately presented property boasts an impressive outlook over the adjacent reserve all the way to the ocean.

The large concreted driveway leads to the double garage that is under the main roof and accessed via an automated panel lift door. There is the added benefit of additional secure undercover parking behind double gates, ideal for a boat, caravan or an extra vehicle if required.

The separate tiled entrance hall gives access to the large main bedroom that is positioned at the front of the home so the views from here are fantastic. The main bedroom also offers a large walk-in robe, a ceiling fan has been fitted and
