Very rarely does a property become available to the open market that offers such a high level of quality, so close to the ocean at such an alluring price!

With exceptional kerbside appeal, upon entering the home even the most discerning buyer will be thoroughly impressed with style, space and impeccable presentation throughout.

Located at the front of the property is a the very generous formal lounge room with combustion heater - a great place to relax and enjoy after a long day. Across the hallway you'll find the spacious home office/study with excellent fixtures.

At the hub of the home, the showpiece kitchen is built for
