8 Heather Road HAPPY VALLEY SA

3 1 3

This very well maintained and updated home could be ideal for a range of different buyers, an inspection comes highly recommended.

The entrance opens into the front L-shaped lounge and dining room that boasts impressive polished timber floors and flows through to the updated central kitchen. The kitchen has loads of appeal and comes complete with a new dishwasher, water filter and lots of cupboard and bench space. There is an additional living room that could be the ideal play room for the kids, or simply provides some separation if required. The 3 bedrooms come with robes fitted and are serviced by a very neat and tidy main bathroom. There is a separate toilet and the laundry is located at the rear.

Additional benefits include ducted air conditioning and gas
