This impressive feature packed property is surrounded by acreage property, with a fantastic rural outlook and only an hours drive from the Adelaide CBD. Offering a multitude of benefits and features that would be suitable and appealing to a wide range of buyers.

The home has been very well maintained and updated. Boasting two separate and spacious living areas. The large lounge room is positioned at the front of the home and overlooks the front yard. There is a slow combustion heater fitted, together with a ceiling fan. This space could be a great play room, or rumpus/games room if needed.
