Located on a generous 1,218sqm allotment, this property is a truly unique offering that I am delighted to present to the market. Built in 1993, this property spans 3 levels and can be utilised as 2 completely independent residences, as the lower and middle levels both boast separate kitchens, bathrooms and entertaining spaces. Combining that with the spectacular ocean views on offer, this is a property which must be seen to be truly appreciated.

The main entry is located on the middle level, and opens out to an open plan kitchen dining and lounge area. This area also has 2 sets of glass sliding doors which open out
