Contact David Hams today for more information or to arrange an inspection.

Located in the quiet and private Oakford Estate and close to shops, schools and transport options, this spacious and inviting home offers a great range of benefits and an inspection comes highly recommended.

At the front of the home sits the huge rumpus/games room, which is tiled and could also double as a spacious 5th bedroom if required. The adjacent master suite is complete with a private ensuite and walk-in robe, and a lovely view over the front garden.

Further down the hall you will find the second living area,
