- Inspections by appointment only -

Nestled at the end of a very quiet street, set on a large 1,500m2 allotment, this amazing property is not only impressive, it is extremely rare and is worth serious consideration!

The home is set back from the street, giving it a modest street presence and intern maximising the private and secure appeal of the property. There is a wide driveway that leads to a huge 4 car carport with plenty of additional secure off street parking including direct access to double gates with drive through capability to the rear yard and ample space for additional shedding if required (STCC).
