Nestled amongst other quality homes in the popular and sought after Orchid Estate, this extremely impressive and immaculately presented home should be seriously considered.

Located on a large 1,125m² corner allotment, set at the far-end of the Estate with only a very small amount of local traffic and overlooking iconic local vineyards makes this location extremely quiet and ultra appealing. The large and very well established front garden assist in giving this property a lovely street appeal. The large double driveway leads into a double garage under the main roof that is accessed via an automated panel lift door. There is plenty of additional off street parking with loads of extra space both down the side and around the corner if additional
