Please contact Jemma for all your property advice.

Opposite the John Nicholl Reserve and only three streets back from the stunning Aldinga Beach Esplanade, this fabulous piece of real estate offers a generous allotment size of 699sqm with a 19.1m frontage (approx). With plenty of options, one thing for certain and that's this properties incredible location and views out across the reserve and beyond to the foothills.

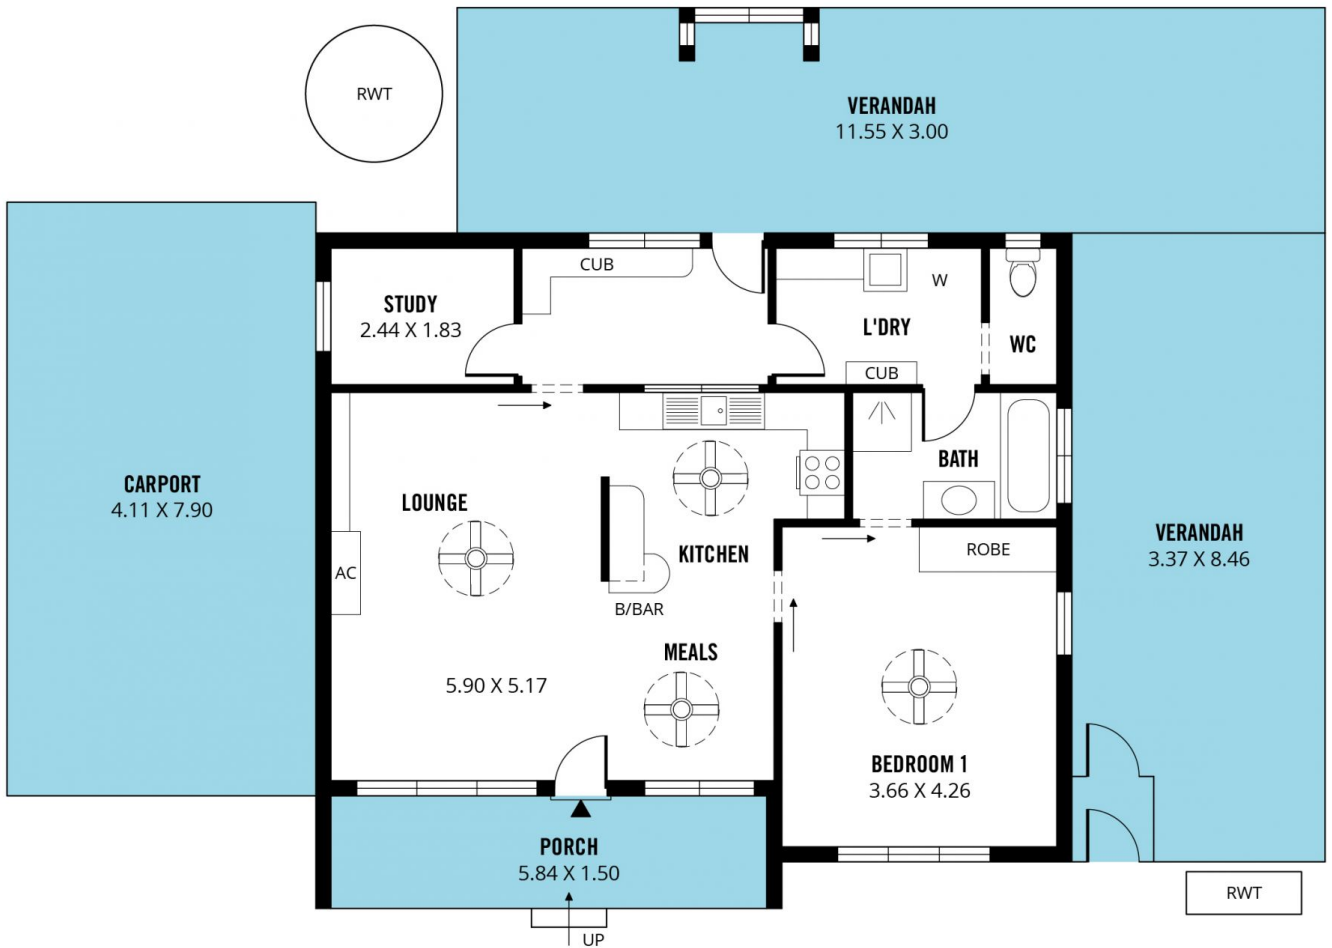

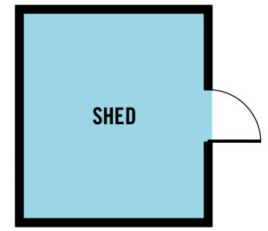

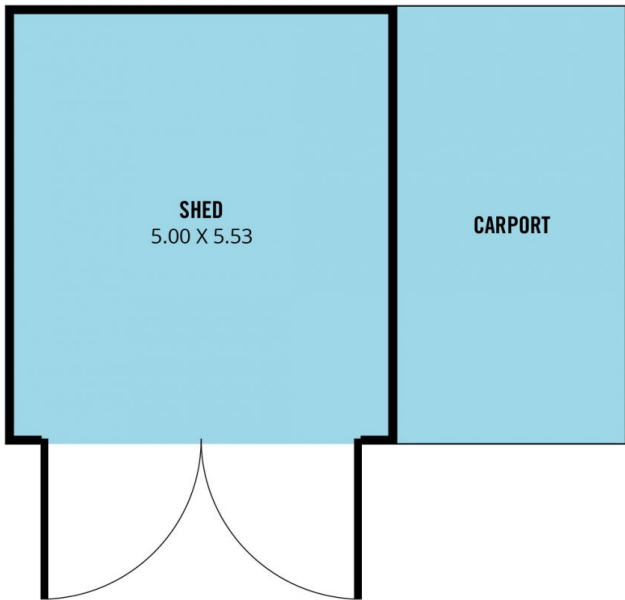

Currently, this wonderful property is home to 1970's built house. While the home itself is tidy and liveable, for the savvy handyman it could be a nice little project. Or, for those not interested in renovating/extending you could look to demolish the house and build a stunning new home to
