2 Henley Circuit Seaford Rise SA

4 2 2

This impressive and much loved home is nestled in amongst other quality homes in a very private section of Seaford Rise. With only local traffic this is an extremely quiet place to live and as this property is located on a corner allotment and set adjacent a large reserve it feels like you only have one neighbouring property.

The striking sandstone facade gives this property an impressive street appeal. The large double driveway leads into a garage under the main roof that is accessed via an automated roller door. There is an additional driveway for extra off street parking that leads into a separate carport which is accessed via double gates. This area is ideal for trailers or campers and depending on height/clearance caravans and/boats. The extra driveway could be the
